3. On-track Rules

a. On-track Behaviour

As the DiRT World Championships 2018 is a serious racing championship, on track behaviour has to be in line with sportsman-like behaviour and appropriate clean racing as set out below:

- i. Passing - The responsibility for the decision to pass another car, and to do it safely, rests with the overtaking Driver. The overtaken Driver should be aware that he/she is being passed and must not impede the pass by “Blocking” (as defined below). A Driver who does not watch his/her mirrors or who appears to be blocking another car seeking a pass may be penalised. The act of passing is initiated when the trailing car’s front wing overlaps with the lead car’s rear wing. The act of passing is complete when the trailing car’s rear wing is ahead of the lead car’s front wing.
- ii. Avoidable Contact – Drivers who cause contact which could be avoided by taking due care and attention during a race are likely to be penalised.
- iii. Punting - The term “punting” is defined as nose to tail (or side-of-the-nose to side-of-the-tail) contact, where the leading car is significantly knocked off of the racing line. Once the trailing car has its front wheel next to the driver of the other vehicle, it is considered that the trailing car has a right to be there, and that the leading Driver must leave the trailing Driver enough “racing room.” In most cases, “racing room” is defined as “at least three quarters of one car width.” If adequate racing room is left for the trailing car, and there is incidental contact made between the cars, the contact will be considered “side-to-side.”
- iv. Rough Driving - Any Driver, deemed by a DiRT World Championships official displaying rough or unsportsmanlike driving may be penalised. The DiRT World Championships official shall determine the course of action. If a Driver is determined, by the DiRT World Championships official to be at fault in a collision that sent the other car significantly off the track, he/she may be severely penalised.

- v. Blocking - A Driver may choose to defend his/her racing line so long as it is not considered "Blocking". "Blocking" is defined as two consecutive line changes to "defend his/her line," and in doing so, impedes the vehicle that is trying to pass with each of the two consecutive movements. If, in the case of side-to-side contact, one of the two cars leave the racing surface (involuntarily) then it may still be considered "a racing incident."
- vi. Right to the Line – The Driver in front has the right to choose any line, so long as not to be considered Blocking. The Driver attempting to make a pass shall have the right to the line when their front wheel is next to the Driver of the other vehicle.
- vii. Race Pace - It is prohibited for any Driver to come to a complete stop on or beside the circuit without good reason or the intention of retiring and leaving the race. It is prohibited for any Driver to wilfully drive their car at 60% or less of their usual race pace, either on or off the track during racing conditions. This is commonly referred to as "Sandbagging".
- viii. Driving the Wrong Way - Driving the wrong way during any race will result in disqualification from the event. In extreme circumstances, permission to drive in the wrong direction can be sought from Administration but must be undertaken in a safe and controlled manner
- ix. Two wheels – At least two wheels must remain in between the track boundaries at all times. This does not apply to situations in which it happens occasionally but as soon as this is a Driver's racing line or a Driver gets an advantage with doing it, he/she can be penalised.

b. Time Penalties

Time penalties will be given to Drivers who break race etiquette (penalties may be applied by Administration in addition to any automatic penalty awarded from the Drivers playing the Game). These time penalties are set as 5 seconds by default but may vary based on the severity of the incident. As per any clause in this Driver Handbook, the head DiRT World Championships official will have the final call on the time penalty given to the offending Driver.

c. Driver Drop-outs and Connection Issues

If a Driver drops out of the game during a race or qualifying session (due to connection issues or otherwise), there will be no type of re-start of the session. If a Driver suffers connection issues due to low bandwidth, resulting in unusual ("laggy") car behaviour within the game, then that Driver may be disqualified from the session where they will forfeit any points or lap time associated with that race or qualifying session.

a. Forfeit

If a Driver chooses to forfeit a race or qualifying session or otherwise fails to complete a race or qualifying session for any reason, they will forfeit that race or qualifying session (as applicable) and forfeit any points or lap time associated with that race or qualifying sessions (as applicable). Drivers may not end a race under any circumstances without prior approval from Administration. Failure to abide by this rule may result in a penalty.

Where a Driver is unable to participate in the next stage, or where reasonably necessary for disciplinary, operational or similar reasons, Administration reserve the right to replace such Drivers with alternative Drivers.

d. Restarts

If four or more Drivers do not complete a session for whatever reason, the session may be restarted at Administration sole discretion.

Administration reserves the right to restart, cancel, end or otherwise amend a race or qualifying session at any point and without prior notice, at its sole discretion.

e. Disciplinary Procedure

If any article in this Rulebook is broken a standard formal procedure will take place as punishment. The procedure is as follows:

- Warning 1 (Verbal Warning)
- Warning 2 (Written Warning)
- STRIKE (Disqualification)

For example, warnings shall be issued for (for example) cutting corners and crashing into an opponent. Strikes can be handed out without warning for (for example) purposely crashing into an opponent or purposely breaking race etiquette, but Administration reserves the right to issue a strike in any circumstance it deems appropriate.
