To: all participants in the Codemasters Group Holdings plc Employee Share Option Plan (the "ESOP")

Dear Participant,

Recommended Acquisition of Codemasters Group Holdings plc by Codex Games Limited ("Bidco")

1. Background

As you will be aware, on 14 December 2020, the boards of directors Electronic Arts Inc. ("EA") and Codemasters Group Holdings plc ("Codemasters") announced they had reached agreement on the terms of a recommended cash acquisition by Bidco, an indirect subsidiary of EA, of the entire issued and to be issued share capital of Codemasters (the "Acquisition").

It is intended that the Acquisition will be implemented by way of a Court-sanctioned scheme of arrangement (the "Scheme") under Part 26 of the Companies Act 2006. The Scheme will require the approval of Codemasters Shareholders and the sanction of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales (the "Court").

The Court hearing to sanction the Scheme is expected to take place at on 16 February 2021 ("Court Sanction") and the Scheme is expected to take effect on 18 February 2021 (the "Effective Date"), which is when the Acquisition will complete. The key dates under the current expected timetable are set out at Appendix 1 to this Letter. Please note that these dates are indicative only and are subject to change.

More information on the Scheme, including the expected timetable, is contained in the Scheme Document which was published on 7 January 2021 and which is available on Codemasters' website at www.codemasters.com/investors/#electronic-arts and on EA's website at ea.com/codemasters-group. Other documents related to the Acquisition (including a copy of this Letter) are also available on Codemasters' and EA's websites.

Capitalised terms in this letter (the "Letter") have the same meanings as in the Scheme Document, unless otherwise defined in this Letter.

The purpose of this Letter is to explain the effect that the Acquisition will have on the options to acquire Codemasters Shares granted under the ESOP ("Options"), and to set out the choices available to you.

2. The Terms of the Acquisition

Under the Acquisition, Scheme Shareholders will be entitled to receive the sum of 604 pence in cash for each Codemasters Share held at the Scheme Record Time. Your attention is drawn to the full terms of the Acquisition set out or referred to in the Scheme Document. This Letter should be read in conjunction with the Scheme Document.

3. Effect of the Acquisition on your Options

Certain Options that you hold may already have vested and become exercisable under the rules of the ESOP. Any of your Options which have not vested as at Court Sanction (which is currently expected to be on 16 February 2021) will automatically vest and be exercisable on Court Sanction under the rules of the ESOP, following which any unexercised Options will lapse on the Effective Date.

If you wish to exercise Options which have already vested you should contact Human Resources at [REDACTED]. Alternatively you may prefer to accept the Exercise Proposal in respect of all your Options, as described in paragraph 4 below, by completing the accompanying Form of Election.

The Codemasters Shares to which you will become entitled on the exercise of your Options are referred to in this Letter as your "Option Shares".

If you have taken no action by the Effective Date, your Options will lapse and be forfeited with no consideration payable. It is important that you accept the Exercise Proposal or otherwise exercise your Options prior to the Effective Date.

4. The Exercise Proposal

4.1 What is being proposed

The proposal (the "Exercise Proposal") being made to you is that you exercise all of your Options in advance of and conditionally on Court Sanction, which is currently expected to be on 16 February 2021. This means that your Option Shares will be automatically acquired by Bidco on the Effective Date under the terms of the Scheme.

The exercise will be on a "cashless" basis which means that you will not have to make an upfront cash payment to Codemasters in order to exercise your Options. Under the Exercise Proposal you will irrevocably undertake to pay the cash exercise price due on the exercise of your Options (and any liability to income tax and employee national insurance contributions (or their equivalent)) from the cash consideration due to you as further described in paragraph 4.2 below.

If you accept the Exercise Proposal, you will receive 604 pence in cash (less deductions for the exercise price and any liability to income tax and social security contributions (or their equivalent)) (your "Cash Consideration") for each Option Share acquired by Bidco on the Effective Date, which is the same consideration due to all Codemasters Shareholders under the Scheme.

4.2 Exercise Price and Tax Withholdings (if applicable)

The exercise price payable as referred to in paragraph 4.1 above, together with any applicable withholdings for income tax and employee national insurance contributions (or their equivalent) will be deducted from your Cash Consideration.

Please note that if you exercise your Options otherwise than under the Exercise Proposal, it may not be possible to fund your exercise price and any liability to income tax and employee national insurance contributions (or their equivalent) from your Cash Consideration and you will need to arrange for the payment of these amounts before you exercise your Options.

4.3 How to accept the Exercise Proposal

You can accept the Exercise Proposal by completing the accompanying Form of Election and returning it to Human Resources either by:

- posting it to Human Resources, Codemasters Campus, Stoneythorpe, Southam, Warwickshire CV47 2DL; or
- scanning each page of the Form of Election and emailing the completed Form of Election to [REDACTED] with "ESOP Form of Election" in the subject line.

If you wish to accept the Exercise Proposal, please follow the steps outlined above as soon as possible and, in any event, to ensure that your completed Form of Election is received no later than 5.00 pm on 11 February 2021 (the "Exercise Proposal Deadline"). Forms of Election received beyond this deadline may not be accepted.

The exercise of your Options under the Exercise Proposal will be conditional upon the sanction of the Scheme by the Court, and will not take effect until Court Sanction. Please read the explanatory notes and the terms and conditions printed on the accompanying Form of Election carefully before you complete it. If the Court does not sanction the Scheme and the Acquisition does not proceed, your acceptance of the Exercise Proposal will be of no effect, and your Options will remain in place (whether vested or unvested) on their existing terms.

You will receive your Cash Consideration (less deductions as referred to in paragraph 4.2 above) through your local payroll as soon as practicable following the receipt by Codemasters of the cash consideration from Bidco.

4.4 Alternatives to the Exercise Proposal

You may choose to exercise your Options (including any of your Options which vest and become exercisable on Court Sanction) outside the Exercise Proposal. If you exercise your Options before the Scheme Record Time, your Option Shares will be automatically acquired under the Scheme. If you exercise after the Scheme Record Time but before the Effective Date, your Option Shares will be automatically acquired by Bidco pursuant to the amended articles of association to be approved by Codemasters Shareholders as part of the Scheme. This will mean you will receive the same 604 pence per Option Share cash consideration (less deductions as referred to in paragraph 4.2 above) as if you had accepted the Exercise Proposal. However, in these circumstances, you will have to make your own arrangements with Codemasters to pay the exercise price and any liability to income tax and employee national Insurance contributions (on their equivalents) due on the exercise of your (i.e. cashless exercise of your Options will not be available).

If you wish to exercise your Options outside the Exercise Proposal, you should not complete or return the accompanying Form of Election, but instead contact Human Resources by email at [REDACTED] at least one week before the date on which you wish to exercise.

You are reminded that, if you fail to take any action and the Scheme is sanctioned by the Court and becomes effective, your Options will lapse on the Effective Date (see paragraph 3 above) and be forfeited without any consideration payable to you.

5. Tax Implications of Exercising your Options

A summary of the tax implications of exercising your Options is set out in Appendix 2 to this Letter. If you are in any doubt as to your personal tax position, you should consult an appropriate independent professional tax adviser without delay.

If you exercise your Options outside the Exercise Proposal, you should note the tax implications summarised in Appendix 2 to this Letter.

6. Codemasters Directors' Recommendation

The Directors of Codemasters (the "Codemasters Directors"), who have been so advised by Jefferies International Limited ("Jefferies") as to the financial terms of the Exercise Proposal, consider the Exercise Proposal set out in this Letter to be fair and reasonable in the context of the Acquisition. In providing advice to the Codemasters Directors, Jefferies has taken into account the commercial assessments of the Codemasters Directors. Jefferies is providing independent financial advice to the Codemasters Directors for the purposes of Rule 15(b) of the Takeover Code.

The Codemasters Directors recommend that you exercise your Options in advance of, and conditionally on, Court Sanction by accepting the Exercise Proposal (in accordance with paragraphs 4.1 – 4.3 of this Letter) so that you do not have to make an upfront cash payment to Codemasters in respect of such exercise, as those Codemasters Directors who are participants under the ESOP intend to do in respect of the Options held by them.

7. General

If you have any queries in relation to the Letter or how to complete the accompanying Form of Election, you should contact Human Resources by email at [REDACTED]. Please note that none of the officers or employees of Codemasters or EA will be able to advise you on the course of action that you should take in relation to your Options or in relation to your financial or tax position.

Yours faithfully

APPENDIX 2

UK tax implications of the exercise of Options

Except to the extent indicated below, this Appendix only addresses the tax position for a person who is resident and domiciled in the United Kingdom for tax purposes at the date of grant and exercise of the Options granted under the ESOP and at all other material times. The information contained in this Appendix is intended to assist you in your choice, but it is not a full description of all possible taxation implications or of all the circumstances in which a taxation liability may occur. If you are in any doubt as to your position or if you are not resident and domiciled in the United Kingdom, you should consult an appropriate independent professional tax adviser.

Full details of the exercise of your Options will be given to HM Revenue & Customs ("HMRC") by Codemasters and should be reported by you on your self-assessment tax return, if you are required to complete a tax return.

Tax-approved Options

If you exercise your Options by accepting the Exercise Proposal, are a UK taxpayer and your Options were granted on the basis that they were tax-approved, although the Acquisition will be taking place less than three years after the date on which the Options were granted to you, your Options will remain eligible for tax relief on exercise and no deductions for income tax or employee national insurance will be required. Options exercised outside of the Exercise Proposal will be treated for UK tax purposes as if they are not tax-approved (see below).

The exercise price of your Options will form the base cost of your holding of your Option Shares for the purposes of capital gains tax. The subsequent disposal of your Option Shares should be reported in the capital gains section of your tax return where a taxable gain arises, or where proceeds exceed four times the annual exempt amount (which is currently £12,300).

If you held or subsequently acquire (within 30 days) other Codemasters Shares the base cost may be more complex and separate advice should be taken in respect of your personal circumstances.

Options which are not tax-approved

If you exercise your Options and are a UK taxpayer, then you will be liable to income tax and employee national insurance contributions on the value of your Option Shares which you receive following exercise less the exercise price per share payable under your Options.

Any income tax and employee national insurance contributions arising on the exercise of your Options will be deducted from the cash consideration due to you for the acquisition of your Option Shares under the terms of the Scheme (together with payment of the exercise price in respect of your Options) and your tax liability will be paid to HMRC by Codemasters (or your employer, if different) under the UK Pay-As-You-Earn withholding/payroll system. You do not need to take any action in this respect.

The value of the Option Shares which you receive will be your base cost for capital gains tax purposes. No gain is expected to arise on their disposal to Bidco.

Non-UK tax implications of the exercise of Options

If you exercise your Options and you are not a UK taxpayer, you may be subject to tax and employee's social security contributions (or similar taxes or levies) depending on your tax residence and personal tax position. If you are resident in a jurisdiction in which your employer is obliged to withhold tax and/or employee's social security contributions (or similar taxes or levies), appropriate deductions from the payment of 604 pence due to you and as described in paragraph 4.2 of the Exercise Proposal will be made by Codemasters. You do not need to take any action in this respect.

THIS FORM IS IMPORTANT AND REQUIRES YOUR IMMEDIATE ATTENTION. If you are in any doubt as to the action you should take, you are recommended to seek your own personal financial, tax and legal advice immediately from your stockbroker, bank manager, solicitor, accountant or other independent financial adviser authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (as amended), if you are resident in the United Kingdom, or, if not, from another appropriately authorised independent financial adviser.
